Wendy lived in a house
in London.

She had two brothers.
They were called John and Michael.

One night a boy called Peter Pan came to Wendy's house.

Peter asked Wendy,
John and Michael to come to Never Land.

Wendy and her brothers flew in the sky with Peter Pan and his friend Tinkerbell.

They flew all the way to Never Land.

But Tinkerbell did not like Wendy.

She told Peter's friends to shoot down Wendy.

The boys shot Wendy down.

But Peter saved her.

The boys went to find some Indians.

The Indians tied them up.

Peter took Wendy to see some mermaids.

They saw a boat.

A wicked pirate was in the boat. He was Captain Hook.

A crocodile was in the water.

Peter's friend was in the boat, too.

“Where is Peter?”
asked Captain Hook.

“I will not tell you,”
said Tiger Lily.

Peter saved Tiger Lily
and took her home.

Captain Hook fell into the water.

The Indians set the boys free.

They were very happy.

Captain Hook was very cross.

“Bring Tinkerbell here,” he said.

"Yes, Captain," said Mr Smee.

Tinkerbell showed Captain Hook where to find Wendy.

Captain Hook locked her in a lantern.

The boys wanted to go home.

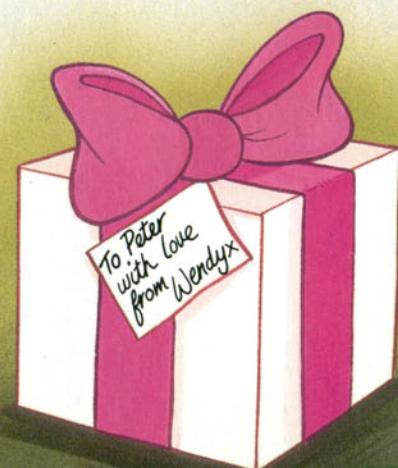

“Goodbye, Peter,” said Wendy.

But the pirates were waiting for the children.

They took them to their ship.

“You must be pirates,”
said Captain Hook.

“No,” said the children.

Tinkerbell got out of the glass lantern.

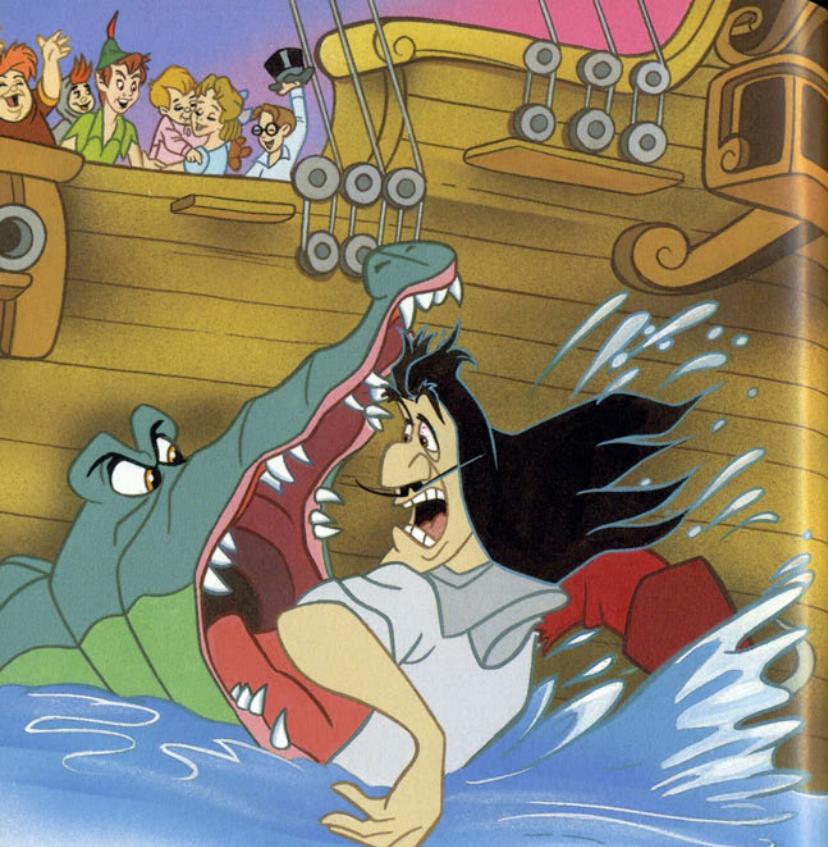

She flew to Peter.

“You must save the children,” she said.

Peter Pan and Captain Hook had a fight.

Captain Hook fell off the ship.

The crocodile was waiting for Captain Hook.

The ship flew up into the sky.

It flew back to London.

The children went home.

“Goodbye, Peter,” said
the children. “Come and see us again.”

Read it yourself is a series of graded readers designed to give young children a confident and successful start to reading.

Level 2 is for children who are familiar with some simple words and can read short sentences. Each story in this level contains frequently repeated phrases, which help children to read more fluently.

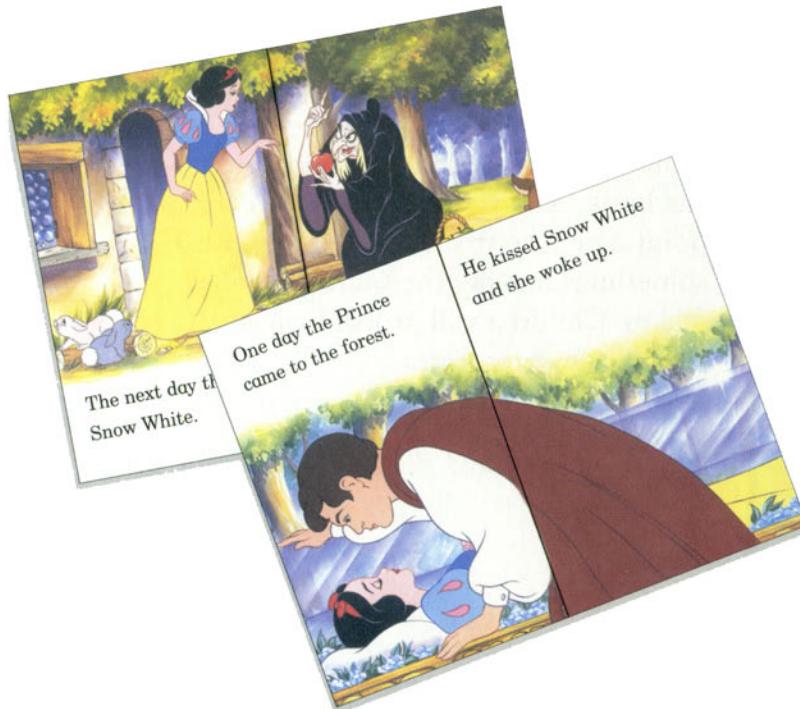

About this book

The story is told in a way which uses regular repetition of the main words and phrases. This enables children to recognise the words more and more easily as they progress through the book. An adult can help them to do this by pointing at the first letter of each word, and sometimes making the sound that the letter makes. Children will probably need less help as the story progresses.

Beginner readers need plenty of help and encouragement.

Read it yourself Level 2

- Simple sentences and vocabulary
- Clear type
- Exciting illustrations closely matched to the story
- Engaging and entertaining characters
